

CIT 480/580 Project Rubric (10% of final grade)

Criteria (weight)	Exemplary 5	Satisfactory 3	Poor 1	Score
Formatting and Organization	All required sections and tables are present with the required data. Very few grammatical mistakes.	Most required sections and tables are present with the required data. Few grammatical mistakes.	Major sections or tables are missing or data is absent from tables. Many grammatical mistakes.
Summary	Summary provides a well reasoned assessment of the security of the systems that is supported by data.	Summary has minor gaps in reasoning or one or two claims are not supported by data.	Summary has major gaps in reasoning or multiple claims are not supported by data.
Summary Table	All IPs, MACs, and OS versions correctly identified with the exception of at most one data item.	All but a couple of IPs, MACs, and OS versions correctly identified.	Multiple missing or mistaken identifications of IPs, MACs, and OS versions.
Service Identification	All services and versions correctly identified with one or two minor mistakes.	All but a handful of services and versions correctly identified.	Multiple missing or mistaken service or version identifications.
Reported Vulnerabilities	All vulnerabilities in the services discovered and labeled with correct report identifiers.	All but a handful of vulnerabilities in the services discovered and labeled with correct report identifiers.	Multiple missing vulnerabilities and/or multiple incorrectly identified vulnerabilities.
Validated Vulnerabilities (x5)	All reported vulnerabilities correctly validated. All validations are well documented via Metasploit exploits or research.	All but a handful of reported vulnerabilities correctly validated. Most validations are well documented via Metasploit exploits or research.	Multiple missing or incorrect validations and/or few validations are well documented via Metasploit exploits or research.	